Glamour Gowns Project Offers Prom Dresses to Foster Care Teens

New and Gently Used Dresses Donated by CASA of Los Angeles

- What: The 4th Annual Glamour Gowns Project provides new and gently used prom dresses to any girl in foster care residing in Los Angeles County. The donated dresses are free, along with makeup donated by DuWop and other accessories to complete the prom ensemble.
- Who: Sponsored by CASA of Los Angeles, which supports volunteers who help abused and neglected foster children by providing the best possible information to judges making decisions about the futures of these children. These volunteers also work to help assure each child a safe, permanent, nurturing home.
- Where: Brentwood Presbyterian Church, 12000 San Vicente Blvd. (corner of Bundy Dr.), Brentwood
- When: Saturday, April 9, 2005, 10 am – 2 pm
