May 8-18, 2008 in Los Angeles

At the University of Philosophical Research, 3910 Los Feliz Boulevard, Los Angeles
In observance of National Foster Care Month ~~ Tickets just $20.

produced by Sidewalk Studio Theatre Productions, Inc.

Imagine 11-year-old Regina Louise in Austin, Texas, circa 1970, leading a life more dangerous than those of outcast orphans Dickens depicts roving London's streets more than a century earlier. This glimpse of Regina Louise "making good on her pact" with God is a gripping, true tale of struggle and triumphs. Accompanied by original music, this stirring tale resonates with hope and resilience. Regina Louise's message will linger in your heart, long after her performance is over.

"...a powerful, disturbing and emotional story that—this time—has a happy ending."

--Sacramento Bee

"Someone's Somebody is performance as confessional expose and rallying cry..." SN&R

Appropriate for ages 12 and up.

This very special production will benefit CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Los Angeles, to provide volunteer advocacy services for abused and neglected children in the Dependency Court System.
